THE ARGUS.

Published daily at 1624 Second avenue, Rock Island, Ill. (Entered at the postoffice at Rock Island, Ill., as second-class matter, under the act of March 3, 1879).

BY THE J. W. POTTER CO.

Rock Island Member Associated Press. Full Leased Wire Report.

Member Audit Bureau of Circulations.

tral Union, Rock Island 145, 146 and now being neld in the city of Washing-

Saturday, January 1, 1916.

Rock Island-From River to River.

Well, it's 1916. If you do not believe it, look at the calendar.

bring about.

It is announced that the wealth of the stockholders in Standard Oil has by Roosevelt and his insolent assurmore than tripled since the comic ance that the "Latin-American states opera dissolution in 1911. People have nothing to fear from us as long laughed at the time, but would have as they behave" hurt the United States roared had they known how good it was really going to be.

It would not be amazing if Germany and her allies came out of this war with stronger attachments and friendship for the United States than in all history. Germany admires a self-respecting nation that intelligently upholds its rights.

ANOTHER DIPLOMATIC TRIUMPH.

In spite of the doubts and fears of even his own party leaders in Wash- and their prosperity and progress to ington, in spite of partisan critics eager for an opportunity to see him leanism, the speeches at the opening trip or fail, President Wilson has scored again in his peerless but firm diplomacy in the case of the Italian steamer Ancona torpedoed by an Austrian submarine with Americans

The dual monarchy, the ally of Germany in the great European war, has sistance of international wrong. acceded to all the contentions and demands made by the American govern-as well as peace.

United States sold Germany goods to the value of $156,058,815. In the same 10 months of 1915 our direct sales to Germany were only $1,787,807; a de-seem to think so, and there is a certain gives every reason for hope that they superficial warrant for their belief.

While American sales to Germany dropped almost to the vanishing point. American sales to Denmark for the first 10 months of this year showed a gain dertakes to express the opinion of the water is very shallow at this point. of $41.881.692 over the same period of republican party leaders. It says: 1914; those to Holland a gain of $45,of exports to Germany.

This, however, is a very superficial tion.' view. Doubtless a part of the excess imports to Holland and the Scandina- Just sane old Mark Hanna common vian countries has been passed on to sense Germany. But our exports to Spain, Brazil, Cuba and Argentina all show big gains this year, and no one has accused these countries of being buying agents for Germany. The explanation is simple; the exports of the countries at war have dropped because their people are engaged on war material for use at home; and the shortage has to he made up from neutral countries. Meanwhile, our exports to the United Kingdom have more than doubled. those to France have increased nearly fourfold; those to European Russia and Asiatic Russia were 27 times as great from this vast reservoir of supplies by the British fleet.

BUT THE GRIPPE BAFFLES

US The latest returns of the census bureau, just published, show the United States to be the healthiest place on the face of the earth. According to the figures for 1914 the death rate in this country is now 13.6 per 1,000 of estimated population-the lowest death rate on record. To make it even clearer, the report shows that there were only 10 death in 1914 where there were 11 a decade Harper's Weekly. early-a total of 38,500 lives in 1914.

This result is gathered only from statistics from registration districts.

keep complete statistics the census bureau's death rate return were gath-

Incomplete as the retrus are drives home two points: First, the all important seed of sa ion-wide registration of health and birth and death statistics. Second, the need, now fre than ver of the fight to prever disease.

ever of the fight to prever ulsease, Already it is showing suits in the saving of lives—and w that it is proved good, keep up he fight!

PAN-AMPCICANISM.

The feeling o mutuality and inter-dependence witch pervades the ses-Telephones in all departments. Cen- sions of the Pan-American congress ton is most happy augury for the futur of the various republics occupyjeg the American continents. Gone e the old suspicions and distrusts. In their place exist a sentiment of friendship and a feelingof confidence. To Woodrow Wilson must much of the credit for this improved state of international opinion on the Ameri can continent be credited. The public utterances and acts of President Wilson throughout his term have been of a nature to inspire the confidence of the sister republics of America in the honorable intentions of this gov-Germany has taken time from home ernment. Unfortunately, the course troubles to officially recognize the Car. of the United States in some previous ranza government in Mexico, which instances had excited a feeling of susshows a bit of worthy appreciation of picion and resentment among Latinwhat President Wilson is trying to American governments that could not but be harmful to the best interests of this country.

The rape of Panama from Colombia so much in the estimation and confidence of all the other American republies that it is little less than miraculous that the conciliatory, frank and honorable course of President Wilson should in three short years have wrought the change that is now apparent. Assuredly, if nothing else in his administration were unusual, the brilliant results of the president's Pan-American policy would be a sufficient monument to his public services.

That the American republics now feel that their interests are identical beserved by the spirit of Pan-Amerof congress bore eloquent testimony United in bonds of mutual helpfulness, sympathy and understanding, the strength to themselves and to the world, for the promotion of international justice and amity, and the re-

No European power or combination of powers would dare to attempt the perpetration of aggressions such as Thus has another crisis been safely have prostrated Europe against the passed through the statesmanship of weakest American republic with the President Wilson without the loss or knowledge that every other American sacrifice of American prestige but republic would fly to her defense. And rather with a gain to American rights that is the guarantee that Pan-Amerion the seas all over the world in war canism will bring to every American republic.

The Wilson administration has suc- In his address to the Pan-American cessfully stood another test and the congress, Secretary Lansing followed honor and dignity of the United States the lines of President Wilson's mesand the right of its citizens upon the sage to the congress of the United seas have been acknowledged and rec- States, where it dealt with American relations, and aptly described the relations which are coming to exist and Miss Mattie Hardy, daughter of tal stock of the Davenport & Rock SOME FIGURES ON EXPORTS among the American republics as a Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hardy of this Island Railway company was raised In the first 10 months of 1914 the ber is ready to help any member. This o'clock yesterday morning at the pardoes not mean, of course, that any ent's home, 2402 Vine street, Rev. F. H. urday night at the old Y. M. C. A. American state will be upheld by its York officiating. sister states in wrong-doing, but it does mean that in every proper move- from Fulton, Ill., to eat Christmas of Memphis in six rounds. Was this tremendous falling off made ment for the betterment of conditions turkey at home. good by indirect exports to Germany in law, commerce and friendship the through neutral countries around her? American republics should stand to- Philadelphia are holiday guests of A certain section of British public men gether. The Pan-American congress Dr. and Mrs. G. L. Eyster.

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES.

"Being president of the United tries combined comes to $169,360,012; the earth over into a Utopia, or imor $15,089,944 more than the decline press his own academic ideas of citizenship as static conclusion of civiliza-

In other words, no ideal rubbish

How about the standard-bearer to fit such a banner? "He may hall from New England: Weeks

"From New York:" Wadsworth. "From Indiana:" Fairbanks. "From Illinois:" Sherman. And so on. Who shall he not be? No "has been:" Root or Taft.

No "mighty hunter:" T. R. No "cannonized saint or unaccomplished political reform;" nobody from "the highest political court:" Hughes,

This all fits in well with the Bourto Italy fully fourfold; and those to bon tone of the republican national in the first 10 months of this year as So does the urgent plea that the party just beyond the lower end of the stomduring the same period of 1914. Germany and Austria have been cut off cortain and normany and Austria have been cut off certain and, perhaps, ill-advised preferential primary action complicates di- very much the same. rection of choice!"

The leaders, in short, want a redblooded stand-up fight with these slo-

To hell with ideas.

To hell with reform.

Let the poor man pay for prepared-Let the poor man pay for everything.

Down with the taxes that hit the well-to-do. Down with government shipping.

Vengeance.

jumbia do. From these sources and which can always wait; vengeance is or infection (germ activity).

by Tavenner

TAVENNER

THE RO

To the Readers of The Argus:

The Argus has generously agreed to permit me to make a regular contribution under this head, to use the space as if it were my own. I am left free to make my selection from where I will, whether it is timely or un- years ago, showing that human nature timely; to search the highways and the byways for has not changed much since that what may impress me as of interest and value to the time, our greatest trouble at present

I assure my readers I shall try to make the most of the opportunity. To do so I must forget that party lines tried our best but have worked under exist, and I will, just as I wish it might be practical for difficulties having lost my two first them not to exist and that the principal issue on election day might be, not whether a candidate belongs to this or that political party, but whether he is willing to serve the masses of the people or the few who exploit

In other words, my idea is to submit information or a thought that I would give to the world if I myself edited a newspaper, the only mission of which was to serve mankind; to do this and nothing more.

When I personally write the contribution, I will sign it, and when I present the thought and work of others I will so indicate. CLYDE H. TAVENNER.

INHERITANCE TAX SOLUTION OF ington by the department of commerce DODGING. (By Gilson Gardner.)

dodging by most of the large income militarism: receivers, has driven members of congress to consider an inheritance tax to meet the need for increased revenues. Representative Cordell Hull who drew the income tax law, is said to be working on an inheritance tax bill. The great advantage of the inheritance tax is its collectability. Estates passing from the dead must go through the probate courts. As all court proceedings are public, the fullest publicity attends necessarily the transmission of property which goes inheritance and the public can know who pays and what is paid. It is estimated by experts that three bilsmall to be taxed-there would be a of her youth and the maining of othtaxable fund of $1,500,000,000 which, er millions; it has brought the whole the amount they get. They have not by scores of billions; and it has par worked for it, and in most cases there alyzed the better impulses of count is little or no moral right to it. The less millions of men and women in thus be reached and a five per cent im- have supplanted the kindly and generpost on inheritances of $1,000,300 and ous instincts which once were so en the absolute confiscation of all inher- cent. itance above one milion dollars.

WAR AND AUTOMOBILES. This bit of news given out at Wash- (Pa.) Democrat.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Balderston of people skating on the slough vestermay help to explain why most of the nonsenical, nonsense to believe as we automobile manufacturers in the Unit- do, this to be separate from the paper Failure to collect the income tax on ed States are down on Henry Ford be- and will be sold to only those that account of the secrecy provisions of cause he is proposing to spend a part wish to buy, and read it. Subscribers the present law and the consequent of his great fortune in discouraging will be charged 50 cents in advance

> War orders last year resulted in American automobile manufacturers doubling their foreign sales, figures made public today by the merce department, showed.

In the year ending June 30 the totals were $74,000,000 as compared with $38,000,000 for the previous year. The total for the calendar year 1915 probably will reach $120,000,000

The last half of 1914-after the war broke out-shows a large increase over the first half.

This also shows that it is indeed an lion dollars changes hands through ill wind that blows nobody good. War death every year. Assuming half of has devastated Europe; it has resulted this is to be small sums-estates too in the death of millions of the flower if subjected merely to a progressive German people to a point where their Her draggled fetlocks reek with mud. rate of from one to five per cent, would food supplies must be doled out to yield from $50,000,000 to $100,000,000 them as water and bread are doled out No pride of race or purple blood without any serious burden to the ben- to ship-wrecked mariners; it has eficiaries. Persons who get money by blasted cities and laid waste hundreds inheritance have little to complain of of villages and farms; it has increased if the government reduces by taxation the debt burden of the warring peoples large inheritance, particularly, could whose breasts the deadliest hatreds upward would work no hardship and nobling; but let it not be forgotten would have some effect toward reduct that while war has done all this and Her oil-gauge plunger never sticks, ing the concentration of wealth. How more, it has at the same time doubled conservative the five per cent tax is, the foreign sales of American autowill be seen from the fact that the mobiles and enabled the General Mot-United States Industrial Relations ors company to declare an initial cash commission in its report recommended dividend on its common stock of 50 per

Can it be wondered at that the automobile interests are nearly all enrolled may take a hero to stay married. in favor of "preparedness?"-Johnston

CHORDS AND DISCORDS

More Editorial Grief.

Man is of few days and full of trouble, was written thousands of is want of money to get out as good a paper as we would wish. We have fingers, and the other two crippled on my right, and so I cannot handle type, and as there was no one here that had any experience in that line, and for new business it makes slow work; and many mistakes, making us so late with our paper that we had no time to correct them. If we can get financial aid enough to keep going aft or we have a little more experience at the business we will publish a pamphlet in three chapters entitled nonsensical nonsense, either nonsensical nonsense to believe as they do or for the series of the whole three chap ters, each chapter will be in paper covers, and each will be sold separate if wish to buy that way. Will be copyrighted, and after pamphlet publication, will be sold in book form. Anyone wishing to subscribe can send in the 50 cents, and we will credit you with the amount. That will help us get out the pamphlets sooner.-Bancroft (Wis.) Independent.

She Has Her Points.

Behold the old, pot-bellied mare Who stands beside the stack. She is not steam-lined anywhere; She has a sagging back.

The hair is worn from off her sides Where tug and trace have been; Profound disgust with life abides About that pendant chin

Her tail is full of burrs; Or Blue-grass sires is hers. Her sturdy pasterns, nit-bestrewn,

Have blemishes galore; Thru chaff-filled mane the breezes croon,

But she has never cast a tire; Her starter always works;

Each shoulder bears a sore.

Her spark-plug never fails to fire, Her timer never shirks: And ne'er has she, I ween, Five miles from home, or maybe six.

Run out of gasoline! -Strickland Gillilan.

Pointed Paragraphs.

Any coward can get married, but it Seven quarts to the peck is the way some grocers measure their success. It's impossible to suppress the man who thinks he can tell a funny story. The journey of life is tiresome-a man is out of breath when he reaches the end of it.

The average woman can make as much fuss over another woman's baby as if she really and truly meant Missouri court has decided that is no indorsement of the colored supplement. A self-made man never ceases to praise his maker.

You can easily convince the loser that it is wrong to gamble.

The wise woman marries for protecion as well as for revenue. Sometimes matrimony turns love's sweet dream into nightmare. It's easier for a woman to fool any man than it is to keep him fooled.

Charity covers a multitude of poor people with second hand and worn out garments. Some men who are too slow to do the courting are married by strenu-Nature leaves a lot of work for the dressmaker to finish. Judge a man by what he does and a woman by what she doesn't say.

Most men would be content with their lot-if it were a lot of money. Remember that the money you in-Age may not be garrulous, but it

She is indeed a wise woman who knows when to stop talking and turn on the flow of tears.

The man who plays cards for fun the money But when it takes a young man birth or refusal-Chicago News.

A Gripping Play.

(B. L. T. in the Chicago Tribune). Mother-Line up, children. The doctor must not be delayed. (She distributes another dozen handkerchiefs). Children (lining up)-Ah-h-h cashoo-a-a!!!

Papa-Sneeze if you must, but don't say "CASH-o-o-o" in front of the doc-

Mother-Ushy-ushy-ah-hoo-o-o! mother; she has a new one. d'ye get that "ushy-ushy"?

Christmas, too.

Family (bowing) - Cashoo-o-o!

(Sterillzed curtain) century a great deal of whisky was distilled in the Tennessee mountains them-but Barker paid no attention to on which no tax was paid. One day a him, and he went on with the rest, man appeared among the government. They found the climbing difficult, but had thus far defied every effort on the part of the officials to trap him. "What's the matter with you fellows," said the newcomer, "that you haven't got Hardwick? He's got to be taken and right away." "All right, Mr. Barker," said Willlams, the man addressed; "we'll do the job under your direction. Lead

Half a dozen men having been collected for the purpose, Barker started up the mountain side, followed by the others, and after a long and difficult ascent came upon a woman sitting on rock crying bitterly.

'What's the matter?" asked Barker. "Matter? Matter enough. Look a-vere." Pulling up her sleeve, she showed a welt that had evidently been made by a tash.

"Who did that?" asked Barker. "My husband."

"Who is your husband?"

"Jim Hardwick." Barker opened his eyes and looked knowingly at his men "Where is Hardwick?" he asked the woman.

"Reckon he's gone up to the"- She checked herself. "Who air you uns anyway?" "I don't mind your knowing that we're revenue men, and we're going to get Jim Hardwick dead or alive!" The woman stopped crying and looked fixedly at the men.

"I don't want you to kill him," she said. "but"-"You mean," said Barker, "that you'd like to see him punished for his treatment of you?" "Reckon I would." "I'll tell you what I'll do. You help

The woman's face took on a covetous look. Barker followed up his advantage. "Show us the way to the still and keep him talking till we can surround it." "What'll you do with him?"

us get him and we'll give you $100."

"We'll turn him over to you." He counted out ten crisp treasury notes and handed them to the woman. She took them hesitatingly, as though she did not quite like the job.

Half an hour later the revenue men led by the woman, had come to a ravine. She paused and said: "The still's up thar. Ef you uns stop this end of the ravin' he can't git out; you got him shore." Barker dashed forward,

The Daily Story

He Showed Them How To Do It .- By Donald Chamberlin.

During the latter part of the last liams called to him to wait a moment -perhaps the woman was deceiving officials who were endeavoring to hunt [Alshed on, Barker displaying an endown a man named Hardwick, who ergy that put the rest to shame. Williams alone hung back, bringing up had been for some time running a the rear. But nothing like a still agstill concealed in the mountains and peared. Then the men began to tire of the difficult climb and one by one fell to the rear. Barker, coming to a perpendicular cliff, stopped, waiting till the others came up. Nothing was said till Williams joined them. "Waal?" he said doubtfully, "Where's the woman?" asked Barker,

All looked about for her, but she was not to be seen.

"I tell you, Mr. Barker," said Wil-Hams, "where I reckon she is." "Where?"

"With that hundred dollars you give her. And I reckon the hundred dollars is whar the still is. And I don't reckon the still is in this yere ravine neither." There was an ominous silence.

"I reckon," said Williams, "that we uns might as well go home. Before we could find the still-and I reckon we couldn't-the hull thing would be cleaned out."

"Do you think so?" asked Barker absently. He was thinking of the hundred dollars that he had given the woman and that he had intended to charge up to the government, but that now he would not dare to mention, and it would be a dead loss to himself. He was soon convinced by the others that to try to find either the still or Hardwick or his wife would be like hunting for a needle in a havstack. Mournfully he led the way down the mountain that he had climbed with such high hopes. When he came to the place where he had first seen the woman, there she was in her cabin near by washing dishes as unconcernedly as if nothing unusual had happened "Did you uns git him?" she asked. with well affected interest.

No reply was made, and she con tinued: "Waal, I reckon you didn't or you would have brought him along. Since I didn't help you out I reckon I orter give you back the money." She hand-he took shamefacedly, then without a word continued the descent. "Gittin' moonshiners," said Williams to Barker, "ain't such easy work, ed Barker the hundred dollars, which after all. "No." said the man who had come to Tennessee to show them how to do ft: "I can't say it is. Don't you fellows say anything about this affair, and I'll report to Washington that you work under serious disadvantages."

Sidelights on the European War

Rome. - (Correspondence of The As-Ilies Istria, that great stretch of counsociated Press.)-Premier Salandra try which used to be a Roman province made a speech at Turin the other day and later was part of the Venetian rein which he said two words that sum- public. Italy does not forget that med up Italy' purposes in the present valuable shoreland along the Eastern Sunday newspapers are legal, but this med up Italy purposes in the present Adriatic was once Italian, and nations." These two words are worth tional aspiration feels that it should remembering by anyone who wishes again be Italian. And beyond that lies to understand Italy's role in the pres- the Aegean islands, the route to the ent conflict, and how it differs from east, with Italy as the great power lythat of England, France, Russia and ing nearest this dazzling field, and the the other parties to the great strug- great power having the largest coast gle.

> Premier Salandra spoke at the moment the Balkan situation was absorb- new movement of national aspiration ing the attention of the world, but he is the sudden disappearance of Gerdid not mention the Balkans. If Ser- man prestige and influence. For years bia, Belgium or Poland had been up-Germany had been building up a compermost in the public mind he doubt- manding position in the commercial, less would have passed that over, too, financial and industrial affairs of Italy. without mention, for the key-note of The triple alliance was the political Salandra and Italy in this war is not bond, but German business men were Belgium or Serbia or the Balkans or doing more than the politicians. Pracany other altruitic purpose, but always tically the entire import of foreign and distinctly the fulfillment of Italy's goods, except coal, was controlled by 'national aspirations."

s sure to tell on a woman sooner or Nazionale, whose name again pro- was often felt, and one of the sins laid claims this fundamental idea of Ital- against the great Ciolitti-and unjustmay get it—but the other fellow gets ian policy, the realization of national by laid against him—was that his polaspirations. None of the entente pow- icy up to the time of his recent fall ers had any distinct national aspira- was inspired by Germany. and they were moved considerably by fluence in Italy was swept away almost humanitarian and altruistic ends. And in a day by the new movement for the that is why Italy's policy differs from realization of Italy's national aspiraall the others, as she is in this war tions. Up to that time, just before chiefly to realize her national aspir- Italy entered the war, Giolitti had been ations.

tions is the get back Italy's two lost since Cavour. He had more than three provinces in the north. Trent in the hundred of his partisans in the chamber west, and the rich strategic country and his word was law., Early last May north of Venice, sweeping around the he came to Rome determined to keep head of the Adriatic down to Trieste. Italy out of the war, and with the These two provinces are the Alsace chamber full of his partisans about to and Lorraine of Italy. They are es- meet, it was supposed Giolitti would Grown Sister (who contribs to the sentially Italian; all the people speak prevail. But the force of the new Line) - Goodness! Would you listen to Italian; the Italian laws make them movement for national aspirations was Where Italian citizens if they come to Italy; underestimated. It was led by skillone of the members of the Italian cab- ful new leaders, with their own news-Papa (using atomizer)—Oh, cut the inet is from these lost provinces and paper. The popular imagination was comedy. This is terrible—right after yet is an Italian citizen and a cabinet excited by appeals to get back the less adviser of the king. Italy has deeply provinces and for a greater Italy, Doc (entering, and speaking boarse- resented the loss of these two provly)-Arrumph! Good mor-Hatch-oo! inces ever since they passed under the The treatment depends. Moderate hatch-oo! Got it in the same place as political control of Austria, first Trent cases are curable by thorough medi- you. (Distributes bottles, atomizers, during the Napoleonic campaigns, and Rosenow, the bacteriologist, has cal and dietetic treatment, which pills, capsules, wrist-warmers, fot wa- later the upper Adriatic country durproved the casual relationship of means always at least four weeks in ter bottles, and takes temperatures. No ing the war with Austria in 1866. She strepococci with gastric ulcer-and bed. Possibly a few cases respond to change today. Tells them he has 70 has always aspired to get them back, but it remained for the present war to Doc (departing)-Hatch-oo! Latch- mould this sentiment into an irresistible movement of "national aspira-shy- tions. But Italy's national aspirations do not end with getting back r lost iprovinces. Just across the line on the Mediterranean. The most notable feature of this Germany. German capital established This policy of seizing the present great banks, built and operated railnoment, when all Europe is at war, ways, electric light plants, factories, for realizing Italy's aspirations, has hotels with German managers and swept aside old parties and leaders | German waiters. Some of the most intend to save doesn't draw any interest. and brought new ones on the stage. It fluential capitalists of Italy were of has given a name to a new party, the German origin or with German backnationalist, which is an extreme sec- ing, and gradually German influence tion of this policy of realizing Italy's became little short of predominant in national aspirations, and it has found- Italian affairs. Even in political and ed a newspaper in Rome, the Idea international affairs German influence > the great power in Italian affairs, be-First and foremost of these aspira- lieved by many to be the greatest man

Daily History Class-Jan. 1.

1776-Revolutionary flag first used by Washington at Cambridge, Mass. 1800-Abolition of Irish parliament and legislative union of Great Britals and Ireland proclaimed.

1863 - The edict of emancipation In force.

1879-Resumption of specie payment in the United States.

1915 - British battleship Formidah sunk in the English channel by German submarine boat or mi from 32 cities in states that do not one of them.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO From The Argus Files of 1890 -

Dec. 26-Dr. A. H. Arp of Moline this afternoon in Davenport the capi-

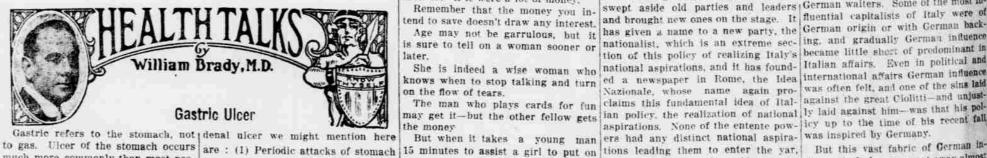

A real prize fight was staged Satbuilding in Moline, when Jack Carri-Major C. W. Hawes came down gan of Boston knocked out Jo Tansey

> Dr. Eli Bradford of Wayne, Neb., is a guest at the home of Dr. Paul Dec. 30-William Bleuer was elected president of Cigarmakers' union 201 Dec. 27-A party of local young at a meeting held last night. The ferry Spencer came out of its day afternoon broke through the ice, harbor last night and is again mak-The magazine called Prosperity un- but escaped with a drenching as the ing trips between Rock Island and

Des. 29-Officers of the Chicago Dec. 31-At a special election held ous widows. 624,493; those to Norway a gain of States is really a rather matter-of-fact Street Railways syndicate, which yesterday William Payne of Rock Is-$24,517,304; and those to Sweden an job. There is no constitutional re- controls street car lines in the tri- land was elected to the state senate increase of $57,336,523. The increase quirement that a president shall uncities, were in the city today on a from the Twenty-first senatorial disof American exports to these four coun-dertake to regulate the universe, make business trip. At a meeting held trict to fill a vacancy, much more commonly than most peo- trouble with intervening periods of her jacket she is neither his sister by ple think, a great many cases being indefinite.

Davenport

Ulcer in the stomach and ulcer in symptoms, effects and treatment are One important factor of ulcer is the surgeon and author, states that he has observed an almost constant terial in stomach contents. association between chronic appendiease of appendix or gall-sac.

Pyrrhoea is probably a factor in some cases.

streptococci find a favorable situation ambulatory treatment, but very few. new cases—who cares?) Would that all of us might learn to for propogation in the pus-pockets In severe cases operation is indispen-Unfortunately all communities do not put off till tomorrow the desire to get about bad teeth, in diseased appendix sable. One reason why operation is oo-o-o! (He bows). register accurately the vital statistics. even with those who have criticized or or gall-sac and elsewhere in seats of advised is that something like one in but 25 states and the District of Co- opposed us. There are some things chronic or unrecognized inflammation every 10 cases of gastric ulcer eventu- hoo! Utch-utch-ahoo-o! Some symptoms of gastric or duo-lon.

comparative comfort; (2) Gnawing, undiagnosed, or they are called comparative comfort; (2) Gnawing, "chronic dyspepsia," "indigestion," burning or boring pain in the pit of "acidity," or something else equally the stomach and extending toward the back or perhaps downward, coming on anywhere from half an hour to two committee's meeting in Washington. the abdomen—that part of the bowel or three hours after taking food; (3) The pain is often relieved by taking some such food as milk, a cracker or a sandwich, being a hunger pain; (4) Excessive acidity (not from fermentation, but from over-secretion of the some long standing trouble in the ap- natural hydrochloric acid of the stompendix or in the gall-sac. Dr. Deaver, ach in the course of digestion); (5) The appearance of blood-stained ma-The diagnosis of gastric or duodenal citis and gall-sac disease with gastric ulcer must be made by (a) symptoms, ulcer. And the Mayo clinic reports (b) test meal and analysis of expressabout 20 per cent of gastric and du- ed stomach contents, and (c) X-ray Up with the tariff on food and cloth- odenal ulcer cases associated with dis- photography of the bismuth-meal undergoing digestion.

ally become cancers if not operated